This event supports MCC’s Institutional Student Learning Outcomes (ISLOs) of Multicultural and Global Literacy, Personal & Professional Development, and Social Responsibility.

This presentation will address the involvement of Buddhist Sangha in social, cultural, and political affairs in Cambodia to the present day drawing on Buddhist practice in Southeast Asian countries such as Laos, Myanmar, and Thailand.

Sreang Heng is a Fellow of the Harvard University Scholar-At-Risk program. He is a scholar and writer and is founder and president of PEN Cambodia.

For information, contact Matthew Olson at 781-280-3715 or email olsonm@middlesex.mass.edu